

British Columbia Christian Soccer League Constitution

Constitution Final Draft

Name of Society: British Columbia Christian Soccer League

Incorporation Number: S0053911

Business Number: 84683 7029 BC0001

The name of the Society is the British Columbia Christian Soccer League

The purpose of the Society is to run a recreational soccer league that will:

1. Support participants grow in their faith and in sportsmanship by encouraging them to enjoy and glorify God through playing soccer.
2. Provide an organized and structured soccer league that offers relational and competitive engagement among churches.
3. Promote inter-denominational and inter-church unity rooted in a shared love of Christ, his Church, and soccer.
4. Help church communities create and engage in opportunities to share their faith with friends, neighbours, and members of their local community.
5. Encourage meaningful relationships among athletes within each church.
6. Demonstrate respect for God, self, and others at all times.